

7.–8. nóvember í Hörpu

Stjórnun fiskveiða

– svo miklu meira en kvóti

Hvers vegna flytjum við ferskan fisk með flugi?

Haraldur Haraldsson – Icelandair Cargo

HAMPIÐJAN

HÁSKÓLINN Í REYKJAVÍK
REYKJAVÍK UNIVERSITY

ICELANDAIR
CARGO

ISI ICELAND
SEAFOOD

marel

Pipar TBWA

SJÁVARÚTVEGS
RÁÐSTEFNAN
2024

Loforð til viðskiptavina:
If it isn't fresh, it isn't Legal!

If it isn't fresh, it isn't Legal!®

FL233

FL233

Cargo Center in Keflavik plays a critical role

9.000m2 terminal in Keflavik

Building extended in 2022

Temperature control

Since 1937, Icelandair has played a leading role in Icelandic society

Ensuring essential air connectivity for social and economic development in Iceland

Developing the Icelandic tourism industry which has become a key pillar of the economy

Building efficient and convenient connections between continents

Current Network

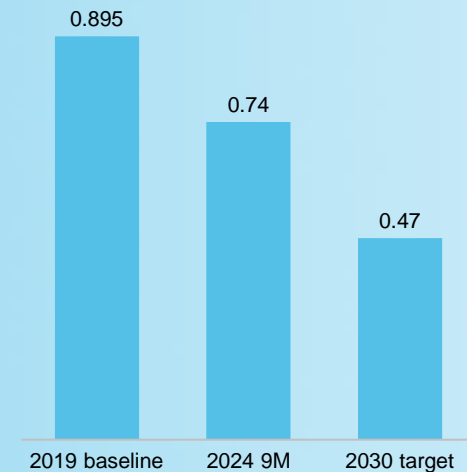

Target to reduce emissions by 50% per OTK by 2030* and reach net zero by 2050

Combination of measures required

-  Fleet renewal / new technologies
-  Operational improvements
-  Sustainable aviation fuels
-  Market based measures

Icelandair on track towards 2030 target of CO₂/OTK²

* Icelandair's target is to reduce carbon emissions by 50% per Operational Ton Kilometer by 2030 compared to 2019

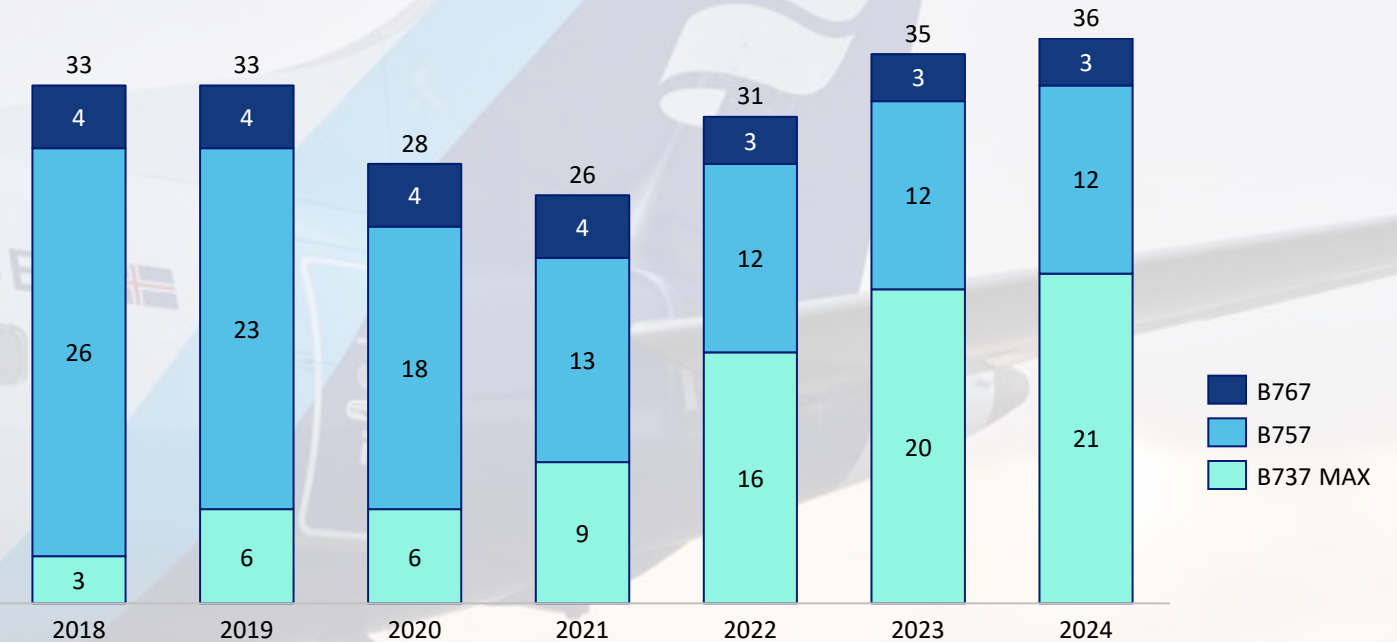

Icelandair has invested USD 750 million in fleet renewal in the international passenger network since 2018

Older aircraft phased out for more fuel efficient and environmentally friendly B737 MAX

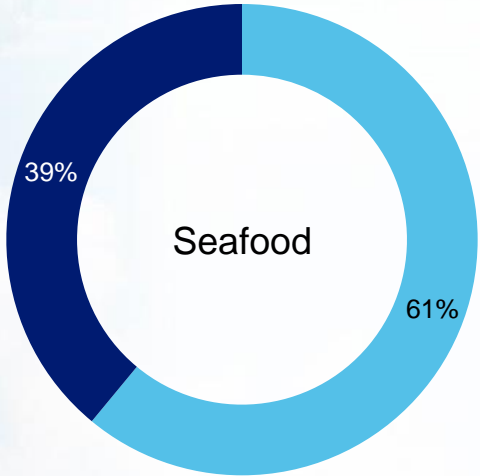

Fleet composition 2018-2024

Av. age of fleet
20 years

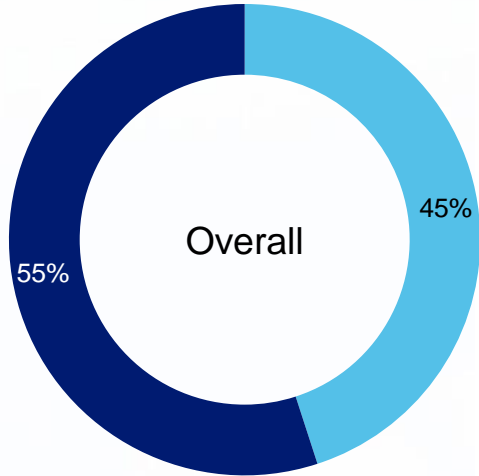

Av. age of fleet
13 years

Increased belly space utilisation

Passenger freight
Freighter aircraft

Passenger freight
Freighter aircraft

Fyrr á ferðinni

Takk fyrir

Við komum þínum afurðum
ferskum til neytenda

Með viðfeðmu leiðarkerfi, fagmennsku, hárrí flugtíðni
og hraða tryggjum við að íslenskar sjávarafurðir komist örugglega til neytenda um allan heim.
Ferskar og í fullum gæðum.